Election

A couple of opposing candidates for county office were sitting near each other in the local diner.... One turned to the other and said, "You know why I'm going to win this election? Because of my 'personal touch.' For example, I always tip waitresses really well and then ask them to vote for me."

"Oh, is that so?" replied the other. "I always tip them a nickel and ask them to vote for you."

These politicians discovered as so many have, that people vote their pocketbook.

I had the opportunity the morning that I am writing this to get up at 4:00 a.m. and meet poll workers at 5:00 a.m. to open the building for the Primary Election. This was not my first choice of activities I was hoping for.

As a Minister, I have always tried to steer away from endorsing any particular elective party or individual. I am not here to encourage you to vote for a political candidate. I am here to encourage you always to vote for righteousness over evil. To vote love over hate. To vote first and foremost in every area in your life to vote for Jesus.

I pray that the Lord enables the right person to be elected in November. Our country needs much prayer. But a vote for Jesus means everything. Matthew 10:32: "Whoever acknowledges me before others, I will also acknowledge before my Father in heaven." So vote for who you will in the November election, but always vote for Jesus. My hope is that you will be able to stand and say, as did Joshua in Joshua 24:15, "But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

Dear Church Family,

1 Corinthians 12:18-20 says: "But in fact God has arranged the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be. If they were all one part, where would the body be? As it is, there are many parts, but one body."

I recently read a devotion about trail mix or snack mix. You might want to grab a handful and contemplate the following...

- Which item in the mix would you say you're most like? A nut? A wrinkly (but sweet) raisin? A dehydrated slice of banana or maybe a twisty pretzel? Why did you choose that item to represent yourself?
- What other items in the mix might represent others in our Church?
- How does the mixture of items complement each other to make or create a complete mix?

God has arranged all of us into the mix with all our gifts to create one body. We need each other to create a complete, functioning church. We recently completed nominating and voting on members to work on a wide variety of ministries. I suppose there are even more tasks that need to be performed than could ever be defined by our Bylaws or organized by our Ministries. I am always amazed at all the small and large tasks that get done very faithfully week in and week out. The communion is always prepared; the bulletins are folded; the songs are selected and practiced; the trash is taken out; the shrubs are trimmed; the nursery is cleaned; Sunday School is taught; the offering recorded and deposited; checks are written; the refrigerator emptied; the grass cut; light bulbs changed; and the list goes on and on.

I wish to thank all of you who agreed to serve on a ministry this year and to the dozens of others who work silently without praise. I challenge everyone in our congregation to take a moment and thank someone (or several people) in church for some task they faithfully perform and for placing

From the Missions Ministry-Lifeline Christian Mission

Lifeline was founded in 1980 by Bob and Gretchen DeVoe who were called to meeting physical and spiritual needs of people around the world while involving people from the US and Canada. They are aligned with non-denominational, independent Christian Churches and the Church of Christ.

The following are some of the ways they help:

1. ABC food event/peanut butter drive—These are “All Because of Christ packing events where people gather to pack rice based food packets that are shipped around the world.
2. Bible Institutes—formed to meet the needs of the local churches, strengthen local leadership and support growth of new churches in Central America
3. Children’s homes in Haiti and Honduras
4. Christian Schools in Haiti, Honduras, and for the Navajos
5. Church ministries in Central America, Canada, and the Navajo Reservations
6. Sports Ministry

How you can help:

1. Contribute to our Church’s donation
2. Go on a mission trip
3. Collect peanut butter, mother/layette items, baby items, toys, Christian DVDs and CDs, school supplies, zip type baggies
4. Connect with benefit golf drives, motorcycle fundraisers, & VBS
5. Praises and prayers

Please ask for “stamps” when you shop at Family Christian Store. Turn them into the Office to be used for purchasing materials.

Please bring ink cartridges to the Church Office for recycling at Staples. Just put them on the table by the Office door.

PRAY FOR ONE ANOTHER!

You're off the Great Places!*

Today is your day!

Your mountain is waiting.

So...get on your way!"

This excerpt from Dr. Seuss' masterpiece, "Oh the Places You'll Go," is relative to several of you graduating seniors. What mountain is waiting for you? Some of you will experience the questionable edibility of dorm food, while others will beg your parents/grandparents to send you food (or better yet come to visit and take you out - aka. BUY - your food.) You will be faced with new and challenging circumstances - like roommates. You'll meet your best friends (and possibly even "the one.") You'll be lonely at times; so lonely in fact that you might cry thinking of home. You'll do your own laundry...well, maybe. Trust me, Dr. Seuss was right. You're about to face mountains, and all of these mountains you will move - you'll survive - and thrive. There is one mountain, however, that is far more important than the others. You're going out on your own which is very exciting, but for nearly all of
