In Case of an Emergency

Remember walking through the school halls as a kid and seeing the fire alarms. Those alarms were put there in case of an emergency. All you had to do was pull down on the switch and break the glass. Or maybe it was some sort of firefighting equipment that stated on the front of the cabinet, “In case of emergency, break the glass.” Maybe it was something printed on the front door. “In case of an emergency call this number.” That is often the way people treat prayer. In case of an emergency. Pray. God is there for our emergencies, but often if we used prayer at other times, some of those emergencies might not have ever happened. The more we pray, the more we are prepared for those emergencies.

You’re sitting at your desk at school and the most annoying sound you ever heard blasts down the hallways. Maybe it is a continuous bell. Maybe an annoying buzzer sound, but everyone recognizes what it is—the fire alarm! The teacher instructs the class to get up quickly and quietly and follow her out of the room. You walk out onto the school grounds and 10 minutes later you find out it was just a drill. The purpose of the drill? To prepare you for the real thing. The purpose of prayer? To prepare you for when you really need Jesus. When do you need Jesus? All the time including emergencies. Some good passages are Philippians 4:6: “Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.” And Ephesians 6:18: “And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the saints.”

So go ahead; break the glass; set off the alarm; and get talking to the One who rescues souls.

The reason why many fail in battle is because they wait until the hour of battle. The reason why others succeed is because they have gained their victory on their knees long before the battle came....Anticipate your battles; fight them on your knees before temptation comes, and you will always have victory.” Torrey, R.A.

Dear Church Family,

While trying to decide what to write about, I came across this idea taken from a daily devotional book. The author believes that living a Christian life is much like trying to be a gardener. Let me explain. Both a Christian life and raising a garden require preparation and continued learning. Perhaps the best time of year for a gardener is the middle of winter with snow on the ground, and the time when all the seed catalogs arrive in mail. The gardens are beautiful, and the flowers are blooming. And, there is not a weed in sight!

This is much like new Christians, a time when hope and enthusiasm is at its peak. But in time, we know that weeds will creep into all gardens, just as sin will creep into our lives. It takes constant hard work, sweat and perhaps blisters to correct both these problems. With hard work, garden weeds can be eliminated and with God’s help through prayer, our sins will be forgiven.

Lord, never give up on me. Please provide me everything I need to show that kind of love to others in my life. Amen.

Max Newlin

From the Missions Ministry

WHEELER MISSION

Wheeler Mission was started in 1893 and was first called the Door of Hope. William V. Wheeler, a hardware salesman, donated his time there. In 1908, Mr. Wheeler died and the mission was named after him for his years of service. The present building at 245 N. Delaware was built in 1929.

In 1959 this location, named “Wheeler’s Camp”, became a refuge for men only. Here, as the men work together, they study God’s word, learn job skills, learn cooking, and do whatever it takes to get their lives back together. From 1991 to 1994, Wheeler Mission transformed the Dearborn Hotel into the Center for Youth and Families. Currently, it is known as the John D. Hughes Community Center.

The mission of Wheeler Mission is stated: “Our mission is to provide Christ Centered programs and services for the homeless and those in need. Our vision is to see every man, woman and child we serve equipped to be productive citizens who enjoy lasting success in Christ”. Those whose lives have been changed at Wheeler Mission, say, “When you step into Wheeler Mission’s door, your life changes”. One of Wheeler’s mottoes is: Help, Hope, Healing.
